

Adam R. Garrick

February 9, 1954-October 8, 2014

Adam grew up in Church Point, Louisiana, and was a devoted Catholic. In 1972 he graduated from CPHS. Adam was united in Holy Matrimony to the love of his life, Cindy Garrick on July 26, 1975. They were married for 39 -1/2 years. Adam joined the U.S. Army in 1976. He enjoyed a 21 year career, during which he received two Army Commendation Medals, three Army Achievement Medals, six Army Good Conduct Medals, a National Defense Service Medal, two overseas Service Medals, Kuwait Liberation Medal, and a medal with three Bronze Stars for Southwest Asia Service. He retired in Fort Polk, Louisiana in 1997. Adam didn't believe retirement meant staying home. He went back to work at the Bayne-Jones Pharmacy for 10 years, and then to AECOM now called Northrup Grumman until he passed away. Adam was also very proud of being a Knight of Columbus. He was a funny, loving man and touched everyone he knew in some way; a helping hand, sound advice, or maybe just a laugh. He will be greatly missed by his family, church and community.
